Remarks

Bring your vision and unlock the potential of this unique Lehigh property! Situated on approximately 3 acres on a spacious corner lot, this property offers an opportunity for the buyer looking for land, flexibility, and a project they can truly make their own. The main residence is in need of complete renovation, providing a blank canvas for investors, contractors, or buyers ready to restore and customize a home to their individual style. Adding tremendous versatility is the detached 2-car garage with an apartment, offering wonderful potential for extended family arrangement, or an adult child. With plenty of outdoor space and room to create the property you've been envisioning, the possibilities here are worth exploring. The location is another standout! Enjoy convenient access to Beltzville State Park and Beltzville Lake, a popular motorboating lake offering boating, swimming, fishing, hiking, and year-round outdoor recreation. Commuters will appreciate the property's proximity to the PA Turnpike/I-476, while Lehigh, Jim Thorpe, shopping, restaurants, and area attractions are all within easy reach. If you've been searching for acreage, additional living space, and the opportunity to renovate a property your way, 1206 Jefferson Street deserves a look! Property is being sold in its present condition.
